

- Midpoint of the edges of two clusters are used as threshold.
- Maximal margin classifiers are sensitive to outliers.
- when misclassifications are allowed the distance between the observations and threshold is called soft margin.
- CV is used to determine the best soft margin.

Polynomial Kernel

$$\Rightarrow (a \times b + r)^d$$